

NORTH CAROLINA FARM BUREAU FEDERATION, INC.
REWARD PROGRAM RULES

- 1) The property owner must have a valid Farm Bureau membership at the time of the offense.
- 2) The effective date of the Program is each membership year for which North Carolina Farm Bureau dues have been paid.
- 3) The $1,000 reward will be paid to the first person giving information that leads to an arrest for arson, malicious damage to property, burglary or other felonies committed on this property and a final conviction or guilty plea on a felony charge or a lesser included offense. In the case of a juvenile or youthful offender, the reward will be paid upon a final conviction or an adjudication of delinquency. The reward will also be paid for information leading to the arrest of persons stealing a tractor or self-propelled farm equipment, even though not on the member's premises.
- 4) At least one sign must have been displayed prominently on the tract of property owned or leased by the member at the time of the offense to qualify for the service.
- 5) If a person is convicted or pleads guilty to several crimes, or in the case of a juvenile or youthful offender, is adjudicated delinquent based on several incidents, only one reward will be paid.
- 6) Law enforcement officers and employees of Farm Bureau companies are not eligible for this reward.
- 7) This reward does not apply on a misdemeanor charge.
- 8) Rewards will be paid by the North Carolina Farm Bureau Federation, Inc.
- 9) Appropriate forms for processing claims will be made available through the County Farm Bureau Offices.
